Dear friends and loved ones,

We lost our brother Sam in March and we miss him dearly. We yearn to see him just one more time, but hope that one day we will get to join him in Heaven. Until then, we will cherish our memories of him as brother, friend, mentor, and lover of life. We are humbled and grateful for your outpouring of love and kindness and will treasure it always.

Many thanks,
Siblings Thelmare, Gertrude, Vashti, Teddy, Debra, and Lavell Varnado
and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins

BALANCE

MY JOB: balancing the books for public schools

MY CONCERN: how about a balanced approach for a balanced city budget?

“ I’ve worked for the schools since 1979 and I’ve lived in San Francisco all my life. I love being able to make a difference in the education of our children, but I’m concerned about our future because these huge budget deficits keep taking a toll.

City employees are helping out by taking pay cuts, contributing over $115 million in this year alone. And I’m not one of those city employees who makes a lot—in fact, I earn less than $50,000 a year.

But these budget cuts don’t just hurt workers—they hurt our schools, MUNI, health care—all of us. That’s why I’m supporting a balanced approach to balancing the budget. That means not just cuts, but increasing revenue by closing corporate loopholes and asking banks, insurance companies, city visitors and downtown corporations to pay a fair share.

Please join the broad range of community and neighborhood groups and city labor unions that have come together to Stand Up for San Francisco, by funding positive solutions to keep our neighborhoods and city vibrant. Join us at www.standupSF.org. Join us in saying enough is enough. Together we can make a difference.”
