JOHN NULTY

For Supervisor District 8

Dear Friends,

I am proud to announce my campaign has received the endorsement of Central City Democrats.

I'm honored to have the support of Central City Democrats democratic leaders. As a member of the CCD, this endorsement is especially meaningful for me. San Francisco voters are ready for innovative new ideas and bold leadership in City Hall. This campaign is about our community's future and about moving our city forward.

My campaign has garnered strong support from diverse individuals from across the district.

They joined a growing and diverse base of support that includes local city leaders, and small business owner community that have united to support my campaign. Visit for a complete list of endorsements.

Our campaign is gearing up for the general election which will be held on November 4th. If you are able to make a donation to keep us in a strong position, please feel free to visit www.electjohnnulty.com to make a contribution of any amount.

Thank you again for your friendship.
