EVERY year the Gina Kahn/Yosh for Hair Salon in Maiden Lane, usually closed on the Monday before Thanksgiving, opens its doors, then donates 100% of all proceeds from its expert styling and coloring to a different needy organization.

This year, for its 12th annual fundraising event, a Yosh's stylist recommended Compass Community Services' Tenderloin Childcare Center to fellow stylists, who voted for it unanimously.

The salon promoted the event to its regular customers, and on Nov. 24, between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m., with stylists volunteering their time, the salon raised more than $15,000 for TLC.

The center, at 144 Leavenworth, has operated in the neighborhood since 1976 and is one of four programs of Compass, formerly Traveler's Aid Society of California, founded in 1914. TLC will use the windfall to supplement its free services to 72 children from low-income and homeless families — art, music, science, nature and literacy activities, meals twice a day, multilingual staff, rooftop playground. And for their parents, a resource library, play therapy and family counseling, access to health services, parent support and education meetings, case management.
